

Monday, January 28th 2019
Notice # 19-008

UPDATED BAGGAGE POLICY ON FLIGHTS TO AND FROM NORTH AMERICA-ECUADOR, COLOMBIA AND TO AND FROM PANAMA - ALL REGIONS

Dear travel agents,

We are pleased to share with you Copa Airlines' updated baggage policy applied to tickets purchased as on February 1st, 2019.

We would appreciate information delivered to our passengers regarding these changes, in order to maximize an excellent travel experience.

BELOW FOLLOWS DETAILED INFORMATION ON BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE POLICY UPDATE

- Copa Airlines passengers traveling to and from North America-Ecuador, Colombia and/from Panama to all Regions will be able to check a bag weighing 23kg free of charge. A $40 fee will be charged for a second bag weighing up to 23 kg.

Routes	Baggage policy update
To/from North America-Ecuador To/from North America-Colombia	One bag up to 23kg free of charge and a second bag charged with a $40 fee
To/from Panama – All Regions

Note: It is allowed to transport a 25kg bag on flights to and from Mexico, according to the Mexican legislation

- This charge will be applied exclusively to passengers traveling in the main cabin and those that have acquired Economy Promo and Economy Classic fares.
- Economic Full (Y,B,M) tickets are allowed to carry 2 bags up to 23kg each free of charge.
- This policy will apply to tickets purchased as on February 1st, 2019 and a travel date as on May 1st, 2019.
- PreferMember passengers and passengers traveling in Business class will continue flying with the current baggage policy.

The airline will continue to allow a carry-on bag of up to 10 kg and a personal item to carry inside the main cabin. The modifications announced by Copa Airlines align with the demands and market trends of the airline industry in the region and the entire American continent.

Further information on Copa's baggage allowance policy, please visit our web page