

Salvador, Brazil

 Salvador International Airport

Airport international code: SSA

Frequencies:

- PTYSSA: Tuesdays and Fridays
- SSAPTY: Wednesdays and Saturdays

Flight time from Panama City:

7hrs and 6mins

Official destination site:

<http://www.setur.ba.gov.br/>

Information and images in english and spanish. Useful for wholesalers.

General information

Salvador de Bahía, better known as São Salvador, is the capital of the Brazilian state of Bahía. Founded in 1549 by Portuguese explorers, it was back then named Brazil's capital. Salvador is one of the oldest cities in America and is the fourth largest in Brazil.

Total Area: 693 square km

Total Population: 2,935,986 people.

Currency: Brazilian real

Official language: Portuguese

Electricity: 110 voltages

Time Zone: UTC-3

Geography: The city of Salvador de Bahía is located on Brazil's northern coast, surrounded by neighboring cities. It is a city mainly occupied by buildings and historical places. It has beautiful beaches and islands near to visit.

   Seasons & Climate: Salvador de Bahía has a very consistent climate, with dry season in December to January and tropical climate all year long.

Tourist Attractions:

Some of the most popular tourist attractions in Salvador de Bahía are: Salvador de Bahía's Historic Center (Visit historical sites and learn about the culture), Bahía de Todos los Santos (visit its beaches and swim by coral reefs), within many others.

Hotel Chains:

Hotel Villa Bahia
Hotel Porto Salvador
Hotel Verona
Faro Inn Hotel Salvador
Fera Palace Hotel
Hotel Deville Prime Salvador
America Tower Hotel
Wish Hotel de Bahía GJP
Monte Pascoal Praia Hotel
Aram Yamí Boutique Hotel

Contact:

Bahiatursa

 + 55 713116-6815

Tour Operator:

Via Capi

Kellye Neis

 hector.valdez@trafictours.com

 + 55 (21) 3500 6464

www.viacapi.com

What to do in Salvador de Bahía?

In Salvador de Bahía, there are activities for the whole family. The children can play in Porto de Barra beach to enjoy the sea, coral reefs, and great waves to surf.

For the adults, there are other relaxing and interesting activities. They can visit Salvador's history museum to learn about one of the oldest cities in America. Additionally, they can visit craft markets in "Mercado Modelo", one of the most popular tourist attractions known in Salvador. Moreover, you can stride by the city and enjoy the different views and visit historical buildings.

Considerations:

Brazil's national tourism authority requests all passengers from endemic countries to be up-to-date with their vaccinations.

It is advised for the passenger to make a stop in Panama on the return flight.

For more immigration requirements and vaccines, you can check Brazil's tourist site.